New to the market, this detached two / three bedroom bungalow is located in the popular area of Cove, Farnborough.

This property offers flexible accommodation comprising a small hall leading to a large open plan living / dining room with feature fireplace, two storage cupboards, modern white kitchen with appliances, two double bedrooms, third single bedroom / study room with access to the rear patio / garden and a modern bathroom with bath and shower.

The bungalow has a long driveway for three cars and a garage with storage. To the front you have a good sized front garden, with a large rear garden and patio.

The owner is planning to repaint throughout ready for a new tenant to move in at the beginning of March 2025.

Chiltern Avenue is just a short walk from numerous local amenities including takeaways, restaurants, supermarkets and convenience stores. Farnborough and Fleet town centres, plus the M3 motorway are all just a five minute drive away.
